Derecho Recovery

On August 10, 2020, a storm called a derecho hit eastern Iowa. Soon after the storm, Bethany members were ready to jump in to assist with cleanup and recovery. Groups from Lutheran Emergency Response Team (LERT) have also been in the area, working with the Iowa District East to assist with disaster relief. Thank you for sharing Christ's love in our community! If you have any needs at this time, please continue to contact the church office at 319-364-6026 or email office.bethanycr@gmail.com. We would love to walk alongside you and assist with things such as meals, laundry, basic manual labor, etc.

Living and Sharing God's Love

Members and Friends of Bethany,

In the midst of the Coronavirus pandemic and the aftermath of the August 10th storm, I in no way want to minimize the suffering of so many people in our congregation and community. Yet despite the tragedy upon tragedy that has effected so many, I would be remiss if I didn't point out and give thanks for the many and amazing ways that God continues to work through our congregation, perhaps now more than ever.

First, and perhaps most importantly, despite the challenges that congregations like Bethany have been facing since March, I am happy to say that Word and Sacrament ministry continues in our congregation during these challenging times so that sinners may be led to repentance and find comfort in the grace and mercy of God through Jesus Christ. This has happened on Sunday mornings, both inside and outside of the walls of our church due to the efforts of faithful servants like Carolyn, Luke, Gerard, and many others serving as ushers, elders, musicians, and members of the Altar Guild. Their faithful service, often while facing difficult times themselves, is a testimony to God's providence in providing the comfort of the Gospel in the shadow of the gates of hell.

In addition to what has been happening on Sunday mornings, the other staff members of Bethany continue to faithfully serve our congregation and community every day of the week. Ronda Anderson, our Parish Nurse, has contacted scores of people and families to check in on their physical, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing. Missy Gingrich, our Office Manager, has been working to ensure the building and congregation continues to be ready to meet the needs of our members. Maren Hopkins, our Communications Coordinator, has gracefully overcome the many challenges of our time to organize the various ministries of the congregation and link people who need help with those who can help. And moreover, each one of them been letting God's love shine through them as they have spent many hours helping people during the cleanup and recovery after the storm.

As gifted and dedicated as the staff is at Bethany, we would fall far short of God's purpose for our congregation if it were not for the many lay leaders and volunteers who enable us to Live and Share God's Love. Leaders like Steve Hanchera, Jim Novitch, and the rest of our Elders, who have been providing for the needs of our members and reaching out to reassure them of God's providence and care. Or Debbie Mills and the rest of the Board of Education who have been planning, not only how to teach our youngest members God's Word in Sunday School, but also how to instill in them the sense of community that comes with being a member of a church. Then there are the boards of Human Care, Evangelism, Stewardship, and Trustees, and the many other individuals who have been volunteering – all working to ensure that Word and Sacrament ministry is able to continue among us, but also that our members and friends are comforted and cared for during such difficult times.

Of course, our lives as Christians are not just lived within the context of our congregation. Therefore, I'm pleased to hear of and see the many instances of our members who have been honoring our Lord by helping their neighbors in their various vocations outside of the church. Members like Ed and Gloria Schumacher or Troy Donels, who seem to be everywhere in our community helping and encouraging people through their skill and talents in the trades. Or Mitch and Lori Myers who have been feeding the many linemen who have come into our area to rebuild our infrastructure. Or the many members of Bethany, young (like the Zimmerman children) and old (I won't name names!), who came to help with the Washington High School Food Drive held in our parking lot. Or Mark and Laura Holt who, like many having suffered damage to their own home, nevertheless were out and about helping others.

These are but just a few examples of God's redeemed people living as God's redeemed people. (As appreciated as each one is, there is simply not enough room to list them all). But I mention these to reassure all of us, that despite the difficulties we have faced over the last few months and the challenges that we will face in the future, God is still active and working His good and gracious will among us through His people. Therefore, let us mourn with those who mourn, and pray for all those who continue to be in need. But let us also give thanks to God, not only for the victory over sin and death that we have through Jesus Christ, but also that so many of those who have been saved by His death and resurrection continue to fearlessly and boldly Live and Share God's Love.

Pastor's Thoughts on the Lectionary

In September, the seasonal canticle is recorded in 1 Chronicles and is from King David's prayer of praise to God at the donation of supplies for the building of the first temple. As David confesses that all things, even his own, come from God, we confess the same truth as we give to God an offering of what He entrusts to our care.

On the first four days of September, we (appropriately) finish reading the book of Job. One of the so-called "wisdom" books, Job gives us a good understanding of God's justice in light of human suffering that many people in our area are experiencing these days. At times we feel, as did Job, that God is only wrathful towards us, but grace is always there. God's answer to a somewhat disrespectful Job in chapters 38-41 helps us keep the right perspective when we want to ask God those seemingly unanswerable questions.

During September 5-14, Proverbs, another wisdom book, is our central focus. Many of these short, practical sayings are from King Solomon; 1 Kings 3 tells how Solomon prayed to God for wisdom, and 1 Kings 4:32 tells of his ability to speak proverbs. The "wisdom" so often described is the result of reverence (fear) for God. Jesus personifies Wisdom, and we herein read of His summoning us to His banquet: "Come, eat of My bread, and drink of the wine I have mixed" (Proverbs 9:5). That statement can point to Christ's invitation in His Holy Supper!

For four days in the middle of the month, we read Ecclesiastes. King Solomon may also have authored this honest look at human beings, though the author's name is not directly given in the book. Human wisdom cannot figure out God's larger purposes or the meaning of our existence: it all seems meaningless, but life centered on God has purpose and meaning.

Next in September we spend two days with another "wisdom" book, Song of Songs (that is, the greatest of songs), also called Song of Solomon (which could be simply a song about Solomon, or by Solomon). While the book can be taken to endorse marital love in all its beauty, it is perhaps best understood as giving us an Old Testament picture of the Church as the Bride of Christ, a figure of speech St. Paul also uses by Divine inspiration in Ephesians 5, with clear references to the role of Baptism ("the washing of water by the Word") in making the Church holy.

Lastly in September we begin the book of Jeremiah, one of the longest in the Bible, and one of the so-called "latter prophets". Jeremiah prophesied of God's coming judgment upon the people of Judah and its capital, Jerusalem. Yet, he also foretells of the people's release and return from exile to their land. He prophesies of Christ and His kingdom, especially in the 23rd and the 31st chapters. Especially notable in Jeremiah 31 is the promise of the new covenant under which God forgives sins and changes minds and hearts through His Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

Family Fun Day Church Picnic: September 20

Mark your calendar for Sunday, September 20. A church picnic and family fun day will be held after services at Squaw Creek Park. If the park is not open yet by then, the picnic will be held at Bethany. Please plan to join us for fellowship and fun activities. The board of education will provide sack lunches.

Sunday School

Based on a survey that was sent to families, we will start the Sunday School year with virtual lessons. Sunday School will start on September 6. Please plan to join us on Sundays at 10:00-10:30 a.m. on Zoom. Look for an email that will provide the Zoom link.

This will be for kids in preschool through high school. All students will start together, then they will go into breakout sessions for their age group.

The plan is to try online lessons four weeks at a time, then evaluate for the next four weeks. The first lessons are from the Old Testament, covering lessons on Genesis, the Fall, Noah, and Abram.

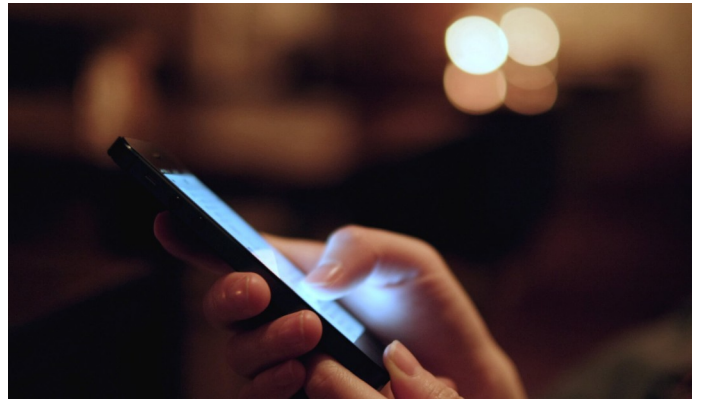

Confirmation 2020-2021

If you have a student entering 7th or 8th grade this fall (1st and 2nd year confirmation) please plan to attend confirmation orientation with your student on Wednesday, September 2, 6:00-7:00 p.m. Please contact Pastor Erickson if you would like more information about confirmation.

Stay Connected

Even in social distancing, we can send cards and make phone calls to friends and family. Please remember to check in on your loved ones! One way to stay connected is to call someone to read through Sunday at-home services with them. This works well as the service guides are formatted in a way to be read responsively. Please contact the church if you need any assistance at this time. Call 319-364-6026 or email office.bethanycr@gmail.com.

Warrior Supply Assistance

Washington High School hosted a community food and supply drive in our parking lot on Tuesday, August 25. Thank you to all the Bethany members who lived and shared God's love by donating supplies and volunteering their time.

As the challenges we have all experienced this year were topped off with the storm that hit our area on August 10, many members began asking how they can financially support those who are in need after the devastating damage that has occurred. In response, the church council has transferred $15,000 from our budget surplus to the benevolent fund to assist Bethany members and families. In addition, Bethany added an option on our online giving to provide for the 2020 recovery. If you would like to support Bethany families in need at this time, you can do this by referring to the website giving page and select "2020 Recovery Fund" in the dropdown menu. The other option is to send a check to Bethany or drop it in the offering plate with a note in the Memo line "2020 Recovery Fund". If you are not familiar with our electronic giving options please see the information below. Please feel free to contact the church office with any additional questions you may have at 319-364-6026 or email office.bethanycr@gmail.com.

Support Iowa Storm Recovery

Iowa District East has a storm relief grant which is intended to assist congregations and schools who have submitted insurance claims. The grant is intended to help with insurance deductibles for these affected congregations.

If you would like to give support to the synod, there are three ways to do so:

First, you can donate to the Iowa District East (via check, memo: IDE Storm Relief) in support of meeting insurance deductibles for congregations and schools. Second, you can directly support the storm relief effort program at Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca so that volunteers have adequate food, supplies, and equipment. Third, you can donate to LCMS Disaster Response who has arranged volunteers and essential equipment.
